Air Quality Forecast for the UK

Issued by the Met Office

Today: Sunny weather will lead to areas of Moderate air pollution developing across some southern and eastern regions of the UK during Easter Sunday. Low levels of air pollution are expected for the rest of the UK.

Tomorrow: A change in wind direction for most areas will bring a much lower risk of air pollution with most areas experiencing Low levels on Monday. Moderate levels might affect some coastal parts.

Outlook: Most areas of the UK will have Low levels of air pollution but Moderate levels could develop across some areas as winds become rather more variable in direction.
